LOCAL INFORMATION

The village of South Stoke, a designated area of outstanding natural beauty, lies on the River Thames between Goring-on-Thames and North Stoke in the southern-most part of Oxfordshire. Conveniently located within close proximity to Goring-on-Thames with its rail links to London (approx 45mins), Reading and Oxford. There is a regular bus service through the village to both Goring-on-Thames and historic Wallingford. The M4 and M40 are each a 25-minute drive away. With no through-traffic South Stoke is truly "villagey" with a 13th century Anglican church, popular pub/restaurant, primary school, village hall, recreation ground with fully-equipped play area and village shop. Many musical, theatrical and social events are organised throughout the year. The WI, the bell-ringers and the angling society all flourish. The village has its own slipway to the river Thames for boating enthusiasts.
