LOCAL INFORMATION

Whitchurch Hill is a beautiful semi rural South Oxfordshire village located at the beginning of the Chilterns escarpment above Pangbourne, and also well situated for the villages of Woodcote and Goring. It is an active thriving village with many family based activities, and a playground on the Village Green next to the Church. There is a village pub, The Sun, and there are miles of footpaths and bridle paths setting out from the village. The nearest villages are Pangbourne (about 2 miles) with its shops, cafes, riverside walks, amenities and mainline station to London Paddington and Woodcote where there is a post office, two shops and a large health centre. There are very good private and state schools nearby, including The Oratory, The Oratory Prep School and Langtree Secondary school. There is a well-regarded primary school in Whitchurch on Thames at the bottom of the hill.

ACCOMMODATION

Entrance vestibule with cloakroom, hall, sitting room, dining room, kitchen, utility room (at the back of the garage), three double bedrooms, shower room (formerly a bathroom).
